Petals of Blood Ngugi wa Thiong'o 2005-02-22 "The definitive African book of the twentieth century" (Moses Isegawa, from the Introduction) by the Nobel Prize-nominated Kenyan writer The puzzling murder of three African directors of a foreign-owned brewery sets the scene for this fervent, hard-hitting novel about corruption and disillusionment in independent Kenya. A deceptively simple tale, Petals of Blood is on the surface a suspenseful investigation of a spectacular triple murder in upland Kenya. Yet as the intertwined stories of the four suspects unfold, a devastating picture emerges of a modern third-world nation whose frustrated people feel that they have failed them time after time. First published in 1977, this novel was so explosive that its author was imprisoned without charges by the Kenyan government. The incarceration was so shocking that newspapers around the world called attention to the case, and protests were raised by human-rights groups, scholars, and writers, including James Baldwin, Toni Morrison, Donald Barthelme, Harold Pinter, and Margaret Drabble.

Breaking the Power of Manipulation Yolanda Gibson 2013-09-15 Breaking the Power of Manipulation takes a serious look at the signs and the effects of a person who is controlled and manipulated. Manipulation is a common phenomenon in today's world. Everyday you come across headlines of newspapers reporting how common it is for innocent people are being victimized in the name of religion and God. Manipulation makes you dependent upon the will of the perpetrator. The perpetrator may succeed in making you feel that you have no potential to do anything of your own without their help and intervention. He brings you to such a state of mind that you lose confidence in yourself and instead always go to him for help making even the smallest decisions. In this process, you become dependent and subjugated to that person. In this book I shall mainly focus on one spirit that is very common and found especially in religious circles, but as well in offices, families and circle of friends. One can detect it easily if one knows its behavior. It is a product of the flesh that opens the door to an evil spirit. It is behavior that operates through a person to control and manipulate, domineering and intimidating tactics. When it is in the church it is to disrupt the flow of the Spirit. The devil hates the prophetic flow of God, but the prophetic ministry demands repentance and cuts away evil without compromise. The prophet always speaks against Jezebel. Additionally, the prophetic word is given with creative power, which renders the enemy helpless. There is such significance in the fact that Jezebel wanted to destroy Elijah. The Jezebel spirit hates the uncompromising voice. It cannot accomplish its agenda with a prophet around. However, I shall not so much talk about the queen Jezebel, but expose how hidden motives combine with a strong desire in certain people find ways to achieve influence and exercise control.
